

MEMORANDUM

January 15, 2002

TO: Academic Deans Council

FROM: Dr. Keith L. Belli
UCCC Chair

RE: Change Notice 4

Listed below are curriculum change proposals which have been recommended by the University Committee on Courses and Curricula. Under current procedure, members of the Academic Deans Council may question the approval of these proposals at any time prior to 5:00 p.m. on January 25, 2001 by contacting the Committee's office (5-0831), or the office of the Vice President for Academic Affairs (5-3742). If no questions have been raised, the proposals will be considered to have been approved automatically.

ARTS AND SCIENCES

Add	AN 8103	Applied Cultural Anthropology. (3) (Prerequisites: AN 1103 or AN 1143 or consent of instructor). Three hours lecture. An overview of the application of anthropological theory and method to contemporary social problems. METHOD OF INSTRUCTION: C C.I.P. NUMBER: 45.0201 24-CHARACTER ABBREVIATION: Applied Cultural Anth. Effective: Fall 2002
-----	---------	--

Add	PS 4233/6233	Interest Groups. (3) (Prerequisite: PS 1113 or consent of instructor). Three hours lecture. The study of the politics and practices of interest groups within the American political process. METHOD OF INSTRUCTION: C C.I.P. NUMBER:45.1001 24-CHARACTER ABBREVIATION: Interest Groups Effective: Spring 2002
-----	--------------	--

BUSINESS AND INDUSTRY

Modify	FIN 3003	Personal Money Management. (3) Prerequisites: Junior standing). Three hours lecture. The individual's acquisition and management of an optimal personal income and expenditure pattern over a lifetime to best meet his/her financial objectives. (Not open to finance majors or as part of the GBA Finance Concentration.)
To	FIN 2003	Personal Money Management. (3) Three hours lecture. The individuals acquisition and management of an optional personal income and expenditure pattern over a lifetime to best meet his/her financial objectives. Effective: Fall 2002
Modify	FIN 3113	Financial Systems. (3) (Prerequisite: EC 2123 or equivalent in Agricultural Economics and junior standing). Three hours lecture. Money; banks; banking systems; the effect of bank action on the economic system, international financial consideration, and macroeconomic analysis.
To	FIN 3113	Financial Systems. (3) (Prerequisite: EC 2113, EC 2123 (or AEC 2713) and junior standing). Three hours lecture. Study of interest rates, basic security valuation, money and capital markets, financial institutions and the roles financial institutions play in the financial markets. Effective: Fall 2002

Modify	FIN 3723	Financial Markets and Institutions. (3) (Prerequisite: FIN 3113). Three hours lecture. A study of the structure and functions of the financial institutions industry. Analysis of similarities and differences in their sources and uses of funds.
To	FIN 3723	Financial Markets and Institutions (3) (Prerequisite: FIN 3113 or equivalent). Three hours lecture. Study of the functions of financial markets. Major topics include interest rates, their role in securities markets and financial institutions, and interest rate risk. Effective: Fall 2002
Modify	FIN 4223	Intermediate Financial Management. (3) (Prerequisites: FIN 3123). Three hours lecture. Analysis of selected problems in financial management of the firm, including short and long term financial requirements, investment opportunities and financial planning and strategy.
To	FIN 4223	Intermediate Financial Management. (3) (Prerequisite: FIN 3123). Three hours lecture. Building on foundational concepts, this course provides a more in-depth coverage of financial analysis, valuation principals, the financial environment, capital budgeting and capital structure. Effective: Fall 2002
Modify	FIN 4233	Working Capital Management. (3) (Prerequisites: FIN 3123). Three hours lecture. An in-depth study of the tools and techniques used in the management of the short-term financial position of the firm.
To	FIN 4233	Working Capital Management. (3) (Prerequisite: FIN 3123). Three hours lecture. Analysis of selected problems in the short-term financial management of the firm, including cash management, investment opportunities, financing requirements, budgeting and planning. Effective: Fall 2002

Modify	FIN 4243	Case Studies in Finance. (3) (Prerequisites: FIN 3723 and FIN 4223.) Three hours lecture. Comprehensive case study to bring out the problems involved in organizing, financing, and managing various types of business enterprises.
To	FIN 4243	Senior Seminar in Finance. (3) (Prerequisites: FIN 3723 and FIN 4223). Three hours seminar. Comprehensive case study to bring out the problems involved in organizing, financing, and managing various types of business enterprises. Effective: Spring 2002
Modify	FIN 4423	Investments. (3) (Prerequisites: FIN 3123, FIN 3723). Three hours lecture. Survey of various investment instruments and their characteristics, investor choice, and an introduction to the basics of security analysis, portfolio management, and speculative markets.
To	FIN 4423	Investments. (3) (Prerequisite: FIN 3123). Three hours lecture. Survey of various financial instruments and their characteristics, investor choice, and an introduction to the basics of security analysis, portfolio management, and speculative markets. Effective: Spring 2002
Modify	FIN 4433	Security Analysis and Portfolio Management. (3) (Prerequisite: FIN 4423). Three hours lecture. Analysis of individual investments, creation and management of portfolios of investments to achieve specific investor goals, and evaluation of portfolio management.
To	FIN 4433	Security Analysis and Portfolio Management. (3) (Prerequisite: FIN 4423). Three hours lecture. Analysis of individual investments, creation and management of investment portfolios to achieve specific investor goals, and evaluation of portfolio performance. Effective: Spring 2002

Modify	FIN 4723	Commercial Banking. (3) (Prerequisites: FIN 3113 and FIN 3723). Three hours lecture. Study of banking environment, functional areas of banking, and tools and techniques required to effectively manage a bank in a highly competitive, dynamic environment.
To	FIN 4723	Bank Management. (3) (Prerequisites: FIN 3113 and FIN 3723). Three hours lecture. Study of banking environment, functional areas of banking, and tools and techniques required to effectively manage a bank in a highly competitive, dynamic environment. Effective: Fall 2002
Modify	FIN 4733	Advanced Bank Management. (3) (Prerequisites: ACC 3203, FIN 4423, and FIN 4723). Three hours lecture. An analysis of bank management decisions in a dynamic environment. Applications of financial management techniques to practical problems faced by bankers today.
To	FIN 4733	Advanced Bank Management. (3) (Prerequisites: ACC 3203, FIN 4423, and FIN 4723). Three hours seminar. Applications of financial management techniques to bank management decisions through experiential learning opportunities. Computer-based analysis, simulations, and written and oral presentations. Effective: Fall 2002
Modify	FIN 4923/6923	International Financial Management. (3) (Prerequisites: FIN 3113 and FIN 3123 or consent of instructor). Three hours lecture. Financial management of a firm including the acquisition, control, and investment of funds under international influences, such as fluctuating exchange rates and institutional differences.
To	FIN 4923/6923	International Financial Management. (3) (Prerequisites: FIN 3123 or consent of the instructor). Three hours lecture. A study of the theory and actual behavior of international financial management, foreign financial markets, exchange rate risk management, and foreign direct investments. Effective: Fall 2002

Modify	FIN 8223	Case Problems in Corporate Finance. (3) (Prerequisite: FIN 8213). Three hours seminar. Cases covering the fields of promotion, raising capital, banking relations, dividend policies, refunding and refinancing, administration, valuation, consolidation, recapitalization, and reorganization.
To	FIN 8223	Case Problems in Corporate Finance. (3) (Prerequisites: 8112 and FIN 8122 or equivalent). Three hours seminar. Analyses of financial management cases involving working capital, financial analysis, valuation concepts, risk and return, capital budgeting, cost of capital, and financial planning. Effective: Spring 2002
Modify	FIN 8233	Advanced Financial Management. (3) (Prerequisites: FIN 8213). Three hours lecture. The acquisition and allocation of funds and their relationship to the firm's objectives; with emphasis on asset valuation, risk-return analysis, capital budgeting decisions.
To	FIN 8233	Advanced Financial Management. (3) (Prerequisites: FIN 8112 and FIN 8122 or the equivalent). Three hours lecture. A study of the theory and application of valuation, risk return analysis, capital budgeting decisions, and capital structure. Analysis of how these decisions affect firm value. Effective: Fall 2002
Modify	FIN 8423	Portfolio Management. (3) (Prerequisites: FIN 8213). Seminar. The application of technical and fundamental theories for decision making purposes in portfolio management, and the formulation of portfolio policies for different types of investors.
To	FIN 8423	Portfolio Management. (3) (Prerequisites: FIN 8112 and FIN 8122 or the equivalent). Three hours lecture. The application of contemporary investment theory for decision-making purposes in portfolio management, and the formulation of portfolio policies for different types of investors. Effective: Spring 2002

Modify	FIN 8723	Financial Institutions Management. (3) (Prerequisites: FIN 3113 and FIN 3123, or the equivalent). Seminar. Cases and readings on the requirements and potential problems of managing financial institutions in a competitive and rapidly changing environment. Computer simulations.
To	FIN 8723	Financial Institutions Management. (3) (Prerequisites: FIN 8122 and FIN 8122 or the equivalent). Three hours seminar. Case and readings on the requirements and potential challenges of managing financial institutions in a competitive and rapidly changing environment. Computer simulations. Effective: Fall 2002
Modify	FIN 8733	Financial Markets, Rates and Flows. (3) (Prerequisite: FIN 8213). Seminar. An analysis of money and capital market instruments; a study of interest rates and financial flows; the effect of public policy on loanable funds.
To	FIN 8733	Financial Markets, Rates and Flows. (3) (Prerequisites: FIN 8112 and FIN 8122 or equivalent). Three hours lecture. An analysis of money and capital market instruments, a study of interest rates and financial flows, the effect of public policy on credit conditions. Effective: Fall 2002
Modify	FIN 9233	Seminar in Corporate Finance. (3) (Prerequisites: FIN 8233 or the equivalent). Doctoral Seminar. Presentations and discussions of the literature dealing with the theory and practice of corporate finance. Preparation and presentation of students original work.
To	FIN 9233	Seminar in Corporate Finance. (3) (Prerequisites: FIN 8233 or the equivalent). Doctoral Seminar. Analysis and discussion of the literature dealing with topics in corporate finance. Also, students prepare and present research projects. Effective: Fall 2002

Modify	FIN 9433	Seminar in Portfolio Theory. (3) (Prerequisite: FIN 8423). Doctoral seminar. Advanced understanding of theoretical and practical applications of portfolio management including efficient market hypothesis, mean-variance concept, option pricing and arbitrage pricing models. Emphasizes research design and application.
To	FIN 9433	Seminar in Portfolio Theory. (3) (Prerequisites: FIN 8423 or the equivalent). Doctoral seminar. Analysis and discussion of the literature dealing with topics in portfolio theory and management. Also students prepare and present research projects. Effective: Spring 2002
Modify	FIN 9733	Seminar in Financial Markets and Institutions. (3) (Prerequisites: FIN 8733 or equivalent). Doctoral seminar. Presentations and discussions of the literature dealing with financial markets and institutions. Preparation and presentation of students' original work.
To	FIN 9733	Seminar in Financial Markets and Institutions. (3) (Prerequisites: FIN 8733 or equivalent). Doctoral seminar. Analysis and discussion of the literature dealing with topics in financial markets and institutions. Students prepare and present research projects. Effective: Fall 2002
Modify	REM 3333	Real Estate Principles.(3) (Prerequisite: Junior standing). Three hours lecture. A survey of the problems involved in the acquisition, transfer, operation and management of real estate.
To	REM 3333	Real Estate Principles. (3) (Prerequisite: Junior standing). Three hours lecture. A survey of the activities involved in the acquisition, transfer, operation and management of real estate. Effective: Spring 2002

Modify	REM 3353	Real Estate Finance. (3) (Prerequisites: REM 333 or FIN 3123 or consent of instructor). Three hours lecture. The institutions of real estate finance; sources of funds; mortgage risk analysis; typical policies and procedures of financing residential, industrial, and commercial properties.
To	REM 3353	Real Estate Finance. (3) (Prerequisites: REM 3333 or FIN 3123 or consent of instructor). Three hours lecture. Direct investment in real estate. Sources of funds; risk analysis; typical policies and procedures of investing and financing investment real estate. Effective: Spring 2002
Modify	REM 4253	Real Estate Mortgage Finance. (3) Three hours lecture. Methods, procedures, techniques and uses of instruments used in the financing of real estate transactions including sources and used of funds.
To	REM 4253	Real Estate Mortgage Finance. (3) (Prerequisites: REM 3333 or FIN 3123 or consent of instructor). Indirect investment in real estate. Institutional sources of funds, mortgage market mechanisms, mortgage derivatives and mortgage underwriting. Effective: Spring 2002

